ON DEMAND AUDIO AND WEB CONFERENCING

GLOBAL SALES SUCCESS

The Vice President of Worldwide Sales opened with a few words of thanks to the senior executives from the Japanese bank he had aggressively wooed. The Director of Regional Sales for Asia and her team were on hand. A slew of lawyers stood by. It was the final phase of a deal that was years — and countless man-hours — in the making. At last, the VP smiled, “So, we have a deal?” His Japanese counterpart nodded. “Done.”

Meetings like this are familiar to anyone in global sales. Closing the deal is the name of the game. But, this meeting was unique because it took place in a virtual meeting room made possible by the InteliCall Meeting Center. The Japanese businessmen were online from Tokyo, the VP was in Chicago, the sales team dialed in from Hong Kong, and the lawyers from New York. Together, they reviewed the contract paragraph by paragraph, tweaking the document in real time.

REDEFINING SALES

The InteliCall Meeting Center is transforming how sales is done. Sales cycles are being whittled down. Product launches are more compelling and open to wider audiences than ever before. Budgets — once dominated by business travel — are freed to make their way to the bottom line, or to make an impact elsewhere.

AN ADVANCED TOOL

With InteliCall Meeting Center, this VP meets and qualifies scores of new prospects, at any time, from anywhere, using the industry’s most advanced — yet easy to use — online meeting tool. Today, some 200 of the Global 500 rely on 1-click web meetings from InteliCall to drive their sales efforts.

REAPING THE BENEFITS

Sales executives are reaching more people, getting more done, spending less time in the process — all at lower cost than ever before. They use InteliCall to deliver compelling presentations. They share applications right from the desktop. They demonstrate new products to larger groups and they measure results instantaneously with online surveys.
